Please be as complete as possible in providing this material. The normal processing time for a Certificate of Appropriateness is 30 days. Failure to provide adequate documentation of a proposed project may delay the application process.

Architectural Review Board Action

The ARB will provide public notice and hold a public hearing. The ARB meets on the second Monday of each month (except October, when the meeting occurs on the third Monday) in City Hall Council Chambers at 7:30 p.m. The applicant or their representative must be present at the meeting to answer any questions from the Board. The ARB is also available, upon request, to provide guidance for specific projects prior to submitting a formal application.

Certificate of Appropriateness

Once an application has been approved by the ARB, the Office of Planning & Community Development issues a Certificate of Appropriateness that remains valid for one (1) year after the date of approval.

Appealing an ARB Decision

An ARB decision may be appealed to City Council either by the applicant or by an opponent. Written notice of intent to appeal must be submitted within fourteen (14) days after the decision to be appealed was rendered.
